Please join us on Cesar Chavez' birthday for the new documentary film from the Southern Poverty Law Center's Teaching Tolerance Project. The film depicts one of the seminal events in the march for human rights - the grape strike and boycott led by Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta. It highlights the parallels between the farm workers and civil rights movement.

To RSVP by March 29th, call the Brown Foundation at (785) 235-3939
or send an email to brownfound@juno.net
